

Final Wishes Worksheet

Having a discussion with the people you love about your final wishes can be daunting and confronting. This worksheet helps you deal with practical arrangements sensibly and realistically. It's an ideal way for you to provide guidance as to how you'd like your life celebrated.

When you've completed the worksheet, share it with your loved ones or attorney. Provide them with a copy or ensure they know where to locate it.

The best way to ensure your final arrangements are carried out as you've planned is to support them financially. Think about ways you can provide this support for your final plans.
